

Sunday Follow Up – 1/22/17
Matthew 7:1-12

Blessed are, have you ever thought how amazing those two words are! Have you ever stopped and thought my God wants to bless, encourage, and provide a way for life. Take a moment now and simply imagine what that could mean for us.

This week I would ask you to try something a little different. On Sunday afternoon Tom Parker sent me the words to an old hymn. The title is; “My Shepherd Will Supply My Need.” Would you read through it each day and remember Matthew 5:1-12. We have a Savior who longs for us to experience life His way not to limit us or harm us but to encourage us help and set us free. And take a moment to focus on the last line, “No more a stranger, nor a guest, but like a child at home.”

Wow, what an amazing view of the Lord’s ultimate plan for each and every one of His followers!

My Shepherd will supply my need: Jehovah is His Name;
In pastures fresh He makes me feed, Beside the living stream.
He brings my wandering spirit back When I forsake His ways,
And leads me, for His mercy’s sake, In paths of truth and grace

When I walk through the shades of death Thy presence is my stay;
One word of Thy supporting breath Drives all my fears away.
Thy had, in sight of all my foes, doth still my table spread;
My cup with blessings overflows, Thin oil anoints my head.

The sure provisions of my God Attend me all my days;
O may Thy house be my abode, And all my work be praise.
There would I find a settled rest, While others go and come;
No more a stranger, nor a guest, But like a child at home.

Keep Growing and Praising,
Pastor Nathan
