Pastor's Corner

October 2016

This last week I have had the privilege of getting to look through Nancy Lusk's devotional notes! Wow, what a prayer warrior and daughter of Christ. One of the items I looked through was an old hymnal—really a songbook from 1933. One song that was marked with her notes was a song titled “There is a Place by Me.”

*Break thru! Break thru, O Warrior!
The battle rages sore, but Calvary is victory—
O sing it o'er and o'er
Back! Back! Ye powers of darkness, of Satan and of hell;
The Captain of the Lord of Hosts, has glorious news to tell.*

*Break thru! Break thru, O Warrior! Lift up your head, and see
The King of Glory whispers, “There is a place by Me”
Ah! This is spirit warfare, not fought on earthly ground—
He knows! The foe is pressing, behind, in front, around.*

*Break thru! Break thru, O Warrior! “There is a place by Me.”
The power that raised Jesus can set thy spirit free.
“By Me” you, too, shall conquer; “By Me” you shall be strong;
“By Me” you have the victory, “By Me” you sing the song.*

*Break thru! Break thru. O Warrior!
“There is a place by Me”—
A place of joy and gladness, a place, O child, for thee.
Above the din of battle, above the powers of sin,
He's raised us up together, and made us sit with Him.*

*Break thru! Break thru! O Warrior!
“There is a place by Me”
He lifts thee from the dunghill to glorious liberty.
Ye are not come to blackness, nor darkness of despair;
But ye are come to Jesus—the Fairest of the Fair.*

*Break forth! Break forth in singing! There is a place of light,
Where we can sing the glad new song from Zion's beauteous height.
Break forth—to Him be glory! The Lamb enthroned was won.
The Lamb has gained the victory! The Lamb shall overcome!*

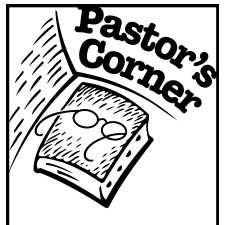

CCLI License NO. 270042

Please take a moment to read through the song. How powerful, wonderful and truth-filled.

Honestly, I believe we as a ministry are in the midst of a spiritual battle. Remember the scripture Ephesians 6:10-19, part of it says we struggle not with flesh and blood but against the rulers, against the authorities and the spiritual forces of evil...

We need to be a people who know how to stand firm and be victorious. It's so easy to get discouraged and overwhelmed in the battle. Yet this simple song reminds us to “break thru O Warrior” because of Calvary we have victory! Because there is a place by Christ we can overcome! Why not start your day being reminded of this truth! Not sure how the music goes, but the words stand by themselves!

Break forth—Pastor Nathan

VOLUNTEERS NEEDED FOR OPERATION CHRISTMAS CHILD SHOEBOX MINISTRY RELAY

SITE GAC has served as an area relay site. Area churches bring all of the shoeboxes they have collected so they can be counted and packed to be delivered to the area collection site in New Wilmington. Ways you could help with the jobs that need to be completed to operate the relay site: A volunteer is needed; 1) to go to New Wilmington and pick up the shipping cartons and deliver them to the church Fellowship Hall. This individual should have a pick-up truck or enclosed trailer. This is usually during the last week of October (Saturday); 2) to place the signs out at GAC the week before the relay site collection and to take them down and put them away; 3) to take charge of making arrangements and getting the rental truck that is used to deliver the cartons to New Wilmington after the relay site is closed; 4) to drive the rental truck to NW on Monday (Nov 21) to drop off the packed shipping cartons.; and 5) many volunteers the days of the relay site being open. GAC Relay site will have hours Nov 14-21. Contact Linda Rhoades—724-588-9544—if you have questions about these opportunities or if you would like to help.

UnQuenchable

30th Annual Knox Ladies Seminar

Saturday, November 5, 2016

9:00 am—4:00 pm

At Keystone Jr./Sr. High School

Where is your faith today—first sparks of faith, bright blue flames, radiating heat, raging bonfire, red-hot coals, cooling embers, cold grey ashes? Is your love for God burning so brightly that you are consumed by its passion? Are those around you drawn to its radiance and warmed by its heat? Are sparks flying from you, spreading a wildfire faith that ignites passion in others? Or has your passion cooled, your light dimmed, or your fire been quenched?

Carol Kent has discovered that God's Word is filled with the secrets of nurturing His fire in our lives, sometimes painfully so, other times even undetected, refining, purifying, cauterizing, healing and ultimately reshaping us into the image of His Son. Author and speaker Carol Kent will take you into God's word, and into your own story, to reveal the true power of the fire God has placed in you, to fan the flames of your faith, stir your passion and embolden you to spark wildfires that will spread to forever change the landscape of this world beyond your wildest imagination.

In celebration of thirty years, founding lady, Lois Eisenhuth will be guest speaker and "The Girl Band" from Grace EC Church will lead worship.

Registration includes morning coffee and snacks, catered lunch, community exhibits, small group devotional and a prayer room as well as a book room. Regular registration will be September 14th—October 26th, cost is $35. Student prices are available for $20. So grab a girlfriend or two, or three and join us on November 5th for a Ladies Day Out!

Brochures are on the table in the narthex. For more information and online registration, go to www.KnoxLadiesSeminar.us or call 814-229-8992.

Memory Verse of the Month: And pray in the Spirit on all occasions with all kinds of prayers and requests. With this in mind, be alert and always keep on praying for all the saints. Ephesians 6:18

As told by Doug Conkle, a recently retired Alliance international worker who has served in West Africa with his wife, Karen, for nearly 40 years.

Karen and I were privileged to serve with the national church, ministering among the agrarian Dogose—one of the largest unreached people groups in Burkina Faso. Following their graduation from Bible school, Pastor Daniel and his wife, Chantel, were assigned by the Alliance district office to be church planters in a Dogose community.

Pastor Daniel, Chantel, and the couple's four children.

One Sunday afternoon Karen and I stopped by to visit them. We were drinking tea together when I turned to Daniel and said, "I don't think I have ever heard your testimony." Here's what he told me.

Jesus Overcomes Fear

Daniel was born into the Bobomadare tribe and raised in a family of animists. His father was a powerful shaman (witch doctor), and Daniel grew up fearing the spirit world and its powers of retribution. (Animism is the belief that all things, including animals, plants, rivers, mountains, the heavens, etc., have a spirit or soul; these spirits must be appeased.)

One day when he and his brother were at the local farmers' market, an Alliance lay evangelist told Daniel the good news about Jesus. Excited to hear that Jesus was the One more powerful than the spirits, the two brothers decided that they wanted to follow Him.

Confrontation

Being an obedient son, Daniel asked his father's permission to follow the Jesus road. "Yeah, if you want to follow this Jesus, that's OK," the father replied. So Daniel and two of his brothers began attending the local church plant in their community.

One day, their father asked his sons to visit him at home.

When the three arrived, their father ushered them into his bedroom and closed and locked the door. "This was kind of unusual," Daniel remarked.

"I called you here today because I see that you're following this false religion, this one you call Jesus," the father said. "I've asked you to come because I want to let you know that this has brought shame upon our family. You have a choice today."

At that point, Daniel's father pulled out a sharpened machete. "This is the choice before you," he said. "Either you deny this Jesus, or this is the consequence."

It's Like Honey

"You know I asked your permission to follow the Jesus road," Daniel replied. "You gave your permission, and I've followed this Jesus. It's like when you find honey in the bush and you taste it—it's so sweet and so good.

"If I hadn't followed Jesus and tasted how sweet and how good He is, then it wouldn't be a hard decision. It wouldn't be a decision. But I want to let you know that I'm willing to follow Jesus—whatever the cost!" (When Daniel shared this part of the story, I about fell off my seat. I don't know if I would have had his courage.)

At this point Daniel's younger brother got up and left. But Daniel and his older brother remained and courageously faced their father, who backed down and opened the door to let them go.

Daniel continued to follow the Lord after this encounter. He later attended Bible school, where he met his wife, Chantel. We are so grateful that they are now cross-cultural workers among the Dogose people.

J.O.Y. Fellowship

Our J.O.Y. Fellowship for ages 50 and up usually meets on the second Thursday of every month with the exception of July and August (due to summer camps and vacations). Our kick-off meeting this year was a bus trip to Warther Museum in Dover, OH. Everyone enjoyed the displays of intricate carvings by Ernest "Mooney" Warther and his wife Frieda's famous 73,000 button collection. Next, all 51 of us including Chad Sankey as our Anderson Coach driver, went to visit Dutch Valley. We enjoyed a sumptuous feast at the Dutch Valley Restaurant followed with shopping at The Coop, The Dutch Valley Gift Shop, The Bakery and The Market. Some chose to enjoy the rocking chairs, the scenery and visiting together.

We will next meet on Thursday, October 13 at 11:30 am in the Fellowship Hall. We will have as our guests Gary and Marty Means — Chalk Artists — Illustrating The Gospel and Sharing God's Word with a Family Emphasis.

For many years Gary & Marty have been privileged to travel and minister to congregations, groups and organizations up and down the eastern seaboard from New England to Florida. They specialize in a unique ministry of encouragement to Christians both young and old. They challenge those who need to make a decision for Jesus. Gary and Marty believe in the Family! They realize their mission is to uplift and minister to the Church Family.

Please sign up in the narthex and indicate what dish you will bring to share: a Delicious Casserole or a Scrumptious Dessert. See you on the 13th!
