

Matthew 7:13-14

This week remember the path you are on makes the difference. Jesus says there is only two ways. In our culture that is hard for us to hear. We've been raised with the view that "all roads lead to Rome." Which may make people feel good but it's not the truth. Even our GPS knows that. As followers of Christ we are called to have a biblical world view. In other words we believe God over our own thoughts, attitudes and behaviors. Also, remember this passage isn't about good people or bad people it's about knowing God and the correct path towards godliness.

So as you look about do you see the broad path? Have you entered thru the gate? Have you accepted Christ's offer of salvation? What hinders you from walking through the gate? Have you asked Jesus to show Himself to you?

If you've entered the gate by Christ your role is to lead others to life. Just think, God has empowered all of us to show people the gate. Would you ask the Lord to penetrate your sphere of influence? Would you ask Him to open your eyes to see people as Christ does? Do you love your zip code? Would you ask the Lord to move so that you would begin to?

Long before Robert Frost penned the words "Two roads diverged in the yellow wood..." Jesus had already covered that idea, "I took the one less traveled by and that has made all the difference!"

This week look for ways to bring your friends and family into the way of life! Show them the gate!
