Pastor's Corner

October 2017

Pastor Nathan
Seckinger

"And now brothers, I want to write about the special abilities the Holy Spirit gives to you." That is just part of a verse from I Corinthians chapter 12, how encouraging for all of us. Do you believe God has called and prepared you for service within the body of Christ? Do you believe you can play a vital role in fulfilling the Great Commission and moving the Kingdom of God forward in G.A.C., Mercer County and around the whole world?

Most people I run into don't really believe that, they assume they are simply not able. Apart from God and the outpouring of the Holy Spirit that would be true of all of us. If you will take some time this month and read through I Corinthians 12 you might be surprised. Notice all followers of Christ have the Holy Spirit dwelling in them. So there is no reason why we can't be used, there may be fear, busyness or misunderstanding, but everyone is called.

Take a look at the list, it's not exhaustive. We are told all of us are helpers in the body of Christ. Then Paul gives us other examples of being used by God. Are you wise? Can you share that wisdom? Are you good at studying and teaching? Are you teaching? Do you have the gift of faith? Do you believe and know God is able and willing? Do you encourage one another with that truth? Can you pray for the sick? Can you preach? Can you share your faith and have a burden to do so? Can you organize people and help them work together? Can you fix things and make the work? Can you make things look beautiful? Can you visit people and encourage them? Can you think of outreach events that display God's glory? Can you join in with others to accomplish and complete a project, task or mission? Can you make coffee and serve donuts? I believe what the scripture is reminding us that every single person has been gifted by God with special abilities and gifts to make G.A.C. and our world a better place.

So this fall, why don't you ask God to use you somewhere in the church? "Lord give me a role, a task, a mission, a burden to bless the body of Christ." Mind you, if God moves it will always be bigger than you think you are able to do. (That's the God part.) And remember it could be behind the scenes, so there may not be a lot of noticeable glory. Just remember you might have the most amazing paint job on your car, but if the engine doesn't work you have "driveway art."

I just want to encourage you to know you are gifted by God. Ask Him to show you what He wants you to do and then follow through and jump in, get involved, be a part of something greater—and see God's glory and power first hand.

Blessings My Friends,

Pastor Nathan

Missions Corner...Schools in Burkina Faso

By Andrew Schaeffer in Burkina Faso,
September 19, 2017

In 2005, I remember our new field director asking, "What is your passion for Burkina Faso . . . something you feel so strongly about that it makes you want to pound the table?"

Someone responded, "Reaching the unreached!" Another added, "Holistic ministry and providing clean drinking water." Still another suggested, "Disciple the up-and-coming generation. "That last one was my passion. "Can there be any better way," I reasoned, "to reach Burkina's unreached and improve the quality of life in this impoverished country than through discipling the next generation? And can there be any better way to disciple young Burkinabe than through a solid Christian education?" I knew Christian schools in Burkina were already providing students with a quality education and a solid foundation in the Christian faith.

"But there were too few schools!" I bemoaned. "We need to establish more Christian schools!" At the time, the Burkina Alliance Church had just three Christian secondary schools. Our leadership team set a faith goal of helping the Church establish 20 Christian schools by the year 2020. :)

As I calculated how much it would cost to build just one school, it seemed like an impossible task. How could we help the Church establish 17 more schools in less than 17 years?

Thankfully our God specializes in the impossible, doesn't He? And He has resources that we cannot begin to fathom. In 2008 the Burkina Alliance Church established her first primary school on the other side of Bobo, the city where we live. Some of you helped finance that project. This past June every one of the 25 fifth grade students passed the middle school entrance exam, which is highly unusual for Burkina schools!

In 2010 the Colsama Church founded a primary school and in 2012 the Sarafalao Church founded yet another primary school. Around the same time we began to receive reports that several churches in Ouaga, the capital, were also founding schools. In 2014 the Bobo District founded a secondary school in the capital of the Kenedougou Province. Last year the Banfora and Hounde Districts both founded new secondary schools. The Banfora school opened with 126 students and the Hounde school with 210.

Last month I was invited to attend the Alliance Christian School board meeting. What a surprise to learn that the Burkina Alliance Church has already established 19 Christian schools! Since it is only 2017, we are now shooting for 25 schools by 2020. During this past school year more than 4,800 students received a quality Christian education in these 19 Alliance schools. Since the vast majority of our students come from non-Christian homes, many encounter Christ for the very first time at a Christian school.

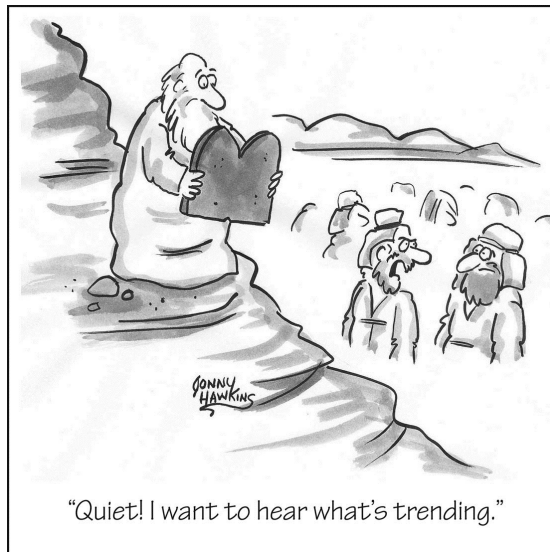

Thank you for partnering with us in Burkina's Christian school movement. The new school year begins on Monday, October 2. Pray with us that God will bless each Christian school and that many students will come to Christ this year through the ministry of these schools.

Gratefully,
Andrew & Esther Schaeffer
