Pastor's Corner

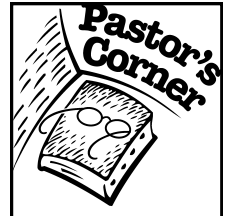

September 2018

"Love the Lord your God with all your heart and with all your soul and with all your mind. This is the first and greatest commandment. And the second is like it: Love your neighbor as yourself. All the Law and the prophets hang on these two commandments." Hopefully you recognize the words of Jesus. This past week I started a new book on "neighboring." Honestly, I haven't gotten very far into it but it talks about how to be a good neighbor for the witness of Christ. And Jesus says we are to love our neighbor as ourselves. So between the scripture and the book it got me to thinking. What's a good neighbor look like? What's loving our neighbor as ourselves look like? Is this something we as Christians should be concerned about? Do we live in a culture anymore that thinks "neighboring" is important?

What if we began to do the simple things neighbors used to do, like wave, introduce ourselves, watch out for their homes when you notice they are gone? The neighbors in my son's neighborhood are having a block party. What if we figure out how to have these, not for any huge reason but just to get to know one another? Maybe we need to watch the old Mr. Rogers show and remind ourselves that it's more than a classic, it's still relevant for us today. What if we began to ask our neighbors if they "would be our neighbor?" Maybe, just maybe, Jesus knew what he was taking about. In a world where we live more and more in isolation, maybe what we need is neighbors.

As the weather stays nice for a few more weeks, would you wave some more or reintroduce yourself? I know I need to do this. Might we ask God to show us what being a neighbor may look like and the courage to be one.

Blessings,

Pastor Nathan

Teach Me, Lord, to Wait

by Ana Cuevas

“Dear Lord, You know my pain, You know how desperate I am for You to heal me. I ask You to help me and teach me to wait on You. I know your timing is perfect and I will wait on You to do your miracle in me.” This was my son’s prayer one night as he faced a chronic illness two years ago. I was humbled by that prayer. Tears ran down my face, not only because of the sweetness of his prayer, but also because at that moment my child trusted in a God Who could do immeasurably more than what we can imagine - but I didn’t.

My son had understood something I had, for a while, forgotten: to trust and wait. I was tired of hearing my child moaning in pain all day. I was tired of having to watch what he ate, tired of having to spend two hours at the grocery store reading every product label yet not able to find much food that would not harm him more. I had to go on medical leave and homeschool him. I had detached myself from a set routine and I didn’t like it. Our whole family dynamics had changed and I was becoming desperate. I had asked many times for a “right now” miracle to ease my desperation. I wanted everything to go back to the way it was. But that night I understood the source of my despair. It made sense and it hurt. A 10-year old’s humble prayer had reminded me that I was not in control of the situation. I wanted it done in my time and not God’s, and I was ashamed.

Waiting on the Lord can test our faith. I realized that not wanting to wait meant I was not recognizing Him as the source of all authority.

In one of her blogs, Sylvia Gunther puts it like this: As we wait, God is revealing His perfections, His impeccable ability to be in charge of every detail. His timing is split-second. He is omniscient, omnipresent, and omniscient. He works all and in all. He gives confirmations of His ever-present-ness. He gives us assurances of His real power over the enemy that is not seen. His Holy Spirit focuses us. We want proof, but faith is the substance (not the evidence) of things hoped for, the conviction of things not seen (Heb. 11:1). The Holy Spirit says, “I am giving you the substance of faith.” He gives the grace to await His purposes until the precise moment when He gives evidence that He was working all along. Without this faith, it is impossible to please Him, for all who come to God must believe that He rewards those who earnestly seek Him (Heb. 11:6).

In Scripture I was reminded how to wait on the Lord:

Quietly and Patiently: “Be still before the LORD and wait patiently for Him.” (Psalm 37:7); “But if we hope for what we do not yet have, we wait for it patiently.” (Romans 8:25)

I was reminded to wait only on Him: “Yes, my soul, find rest in God; my hope comes from him.” (Psalm 62:5)

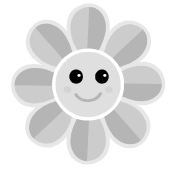

I decided to wait on the Lord like my son, and, like Abraham, who “...after waiting patiently, ... received what was promised (Hebrews 6:15).” When I finally became obedient and waited, I was able to experience God’s power and grace through my son’s illness and eventual healing.

May we all learn to wait quietly and patiently on Him for His perfect timing and answers to our prayers!

Connected to Jesus - A Quiet Strength, Part 1

by Jen Vogel

"Blessed assurance, Jesus is mine!" serves as the opening declaration in one of Fanny Crosby's most-loved hymns. Assurance speaks of quietness and strength. When one has assurance, one can be at rest.

This year, as we reflect on the promise found in Isaiah 61:3 – "They will be called oaks of righteousness, a planting of the LORD for the display of his splendor." – consider the metaphor of the oak tree. A tree is planted. A tree thrives when its roots go down deep. A tree is not easily moved.

In our fast-paced, ever-changing world, I sense a hunger for steadfastness. A quiet strength. Assurance. Not smug. Not stubborn. But solid. This is only possible if we allow ourselves to be connected to Jesus, receiving from Him all that we need.

I see a quiet strength in the life of Fanny Crosby. In reference to her physical blindness, Fanny is reported to have said, "It seemed intended by the blessed providence of God that I should be blind all my life, and I thank him for the dispensation. If perfect earthly sight were offered me tomorrow I would not accept it. I might not have sung hymns to the praise of God if I had been distracted by the beautiful and interesting things about me." Looking to her ultimate healing in heaven, Fanny remarked, "When I get to heaven, the first face that shall ever gladden my sight will be that of my Savior." (https://en.wikipedia.org/wiki/Fanny_Crosby)

Out of this blessed assurance, Fanny found the strength to be an "oak of righteousness," devoting her life to the ministries of gospel songwriting and urban rescue missions. Again, from the Wikipedia article cited above: Crosby will probably always be best known for her hymns, yet she wanted to be seen primarily as a rescue mission worker. According to Keith Schwanz: At the end of her life, Fanny's concept of her vocation was not that of a celebrated gospel songwriter, but that of a city mission worker. In an interview that was published in the March 24, 1908, issue of the New Haven Register, Fanny said that her chief occupation was working in missions.

I'm inspired! How about you? This call to a quiet strength begins with a life-giving connection to Jesus. May this be our story and song: "Blessed assurance, Jesus is mine!"

Prayer Concerns, Notes of Thanks and Church Family News

We give our sympathy to Daisy Townsend as her sister LUCY went home to be with the Lord August 20.

PRAYER PARTNERS NEEDED - for the Prayer Ministry. This is an opportunity to lift up concerns and pray for all our church needs by praying Sunday mornings before the service for our pastor and spending time praying during the service for intercession, lifting up the sermon, Governance Authority, programs, congregation, music and thanksgiving offered in faith. For more information contact the church office or join us at the Prayer Partner Breakfast on September 8 at 9:00 in the Fellowship Hall.

PINTEREST FOR THE SOUL - will resume with normal 2nd and 4th Sunday meetings in September. They are starting a new study by Priscilla Shirer called The Armor of God. Annie Ball will be leading this study. Ladies, if you are interested in attending, please purchase the workbook before the SEPTEMBER 9 meeting. See you then!

BENEVOLENT FUND - The GAC has a benevolent fund which is a ministry where gifts of money are available for those in need in our own church body. People in our own congregation can give to help others by marking "benevolent fund" on the offering envelope. Contact one of the deacons - Jamie Ball, Jonathan Jones, Ben Winklevoss or Gary White for an opportunity to be a blessing to someone in need.

Some Prayers Requests from Mercer County Week of July 30, 2018

1. Prayers for all of the fallen police officer's families and their colleagues. News is reporting that since the start of 2018, at least 54 law enforcement officers across the US have died while on duty - with 33 of the deaths caused by gunfire. Pray for our Mercer County Officers safety and protection.
2. Mercer County Emergency Management Services requests prayers for increase volunteers for our fire departments and ambulance services. Please pray for a large increase in people seeking to serve and job positions as EMTs or medical paramedics. For three shift rotations, we only have 250 people to serve over 115,000 residents, plus all those that pass through our County on any given day. PA is down 15,000 EMTs from 3 years ago to serve our state, due to retirements, injuries, recovering from witness of traumas and huge decline in people seeking to be trained for the jobs.
3. Prayers for opening eyes and hearts for increase of people wanting to help each other by service. Our community, our county and across the country. Concerns of urgency continue to be seen.
4. Prayers for the family and friends that have lost loved ones to overdoses. As of July 21st, 2018, there are 21 confirmed Overdose deaths in Mercer County and 4 pending toxicology. This surpasses the number of Overdose deaths at this time last year. In 2017, the 41 families that are still grieving their losses.
5. Continue prayers for the situation at Lakeview School District.
6. Pray for our County Officials and Court Systems as they have tough decisions to make. Case load is overwhelmingly rising. Reach out to them and let them know we care. Maybe even offer, "and what can I do to help".
7. Congregation Members - Reminder to pray for our Pastors and also show them caring love just as they give and show us. They are our anchors that carry many burdens for us. How may we help them??!!

Ephesians 4:11-13 NIV — ¹¹ So Christ himself gave the apostles, the prophets, the evangelists, the pastors and teachers, ¹² to equip his people for works of service, so that the body of Christ may be built up ¹³ until we all reach unity in the faith and in the knowledge of the Son of God and become mature, attaining to the whole measure of the fullness of Christ. Amen

Good Shepherd Needs

The Good Shepherd request for RICE, PASTA OR DRY GRAINS. Please bring donations to the church and put them in the Good Shepherd Center container marked GOOD SHEPHERD by SEPTEMBER 23. We should all try to participate as this is a ministry of our church to those who need a helping hand.

Remember the local SALVATION ARMY donations. You also have the opportunity to help at the local S-A by serving meals once a month. The dates are the first Thursday of each month - September, October, November and February. 4:15—6:00 pm. Each month at least 4 volunteers are needed. Sign up in the lobby. Questions: contact Kitty Fenton or Esther Loucks.
