

What Work Can HWHW do?

The work that can be provided varies from year to year depending upon the number of volunteers and the individual skill level of the workers.

Our work teams are not professional contractors. Teams will consist of adults and teens, some skilled and some just learning. Nevertheless, we aim to do good, quality work that is a service to you. We will also provide work teams for community projects, nonprofit organizations or those organizations that serve as active partners in the HWHW ministry.

Do the Students/Adults Get Paid?

No, they do not. All of the students and adult leaders volunteer their time and efforts. In fact, team members actually pay tuition to participate in His Work His Way Greenville; their tuition provides for their meals, and help to pay for the materials needed for the home projects.

How Can I Give Back?

It is always great if homeowners can spend time talking with the young people who are working hard. If you feel led to do so, you may make a financial contribution—checks can be made out to His Work, His Way and mailed to: Downtown Ministries, 172 Main Street, Greenville, Pa. 16125

Application

Please read the following paragraph, then sign and date the application (make sure that you have completely filled out the reverse side of this application).

Agreement Clause

My signature under the homeowners information on the inside of this application indicates that I understand that His Work His Way Greenville's work crew members are volunteers, and that the work done on the homes is done by teenage students under adult supervision. I understand that their work may not be of professional quality, and that His Work His Way Greenville may not be able to complete all of the work that I am requesting. I also understand that my house may or may not be selected for work. In addition, if my house is selected, I hereby agree to hold His Work His Way Greenville, Downtown Ministries, its board of directors, its staff, and its affiliated organizations, harmless of and from any and all liability of whatever nature may arise out of, or result from, their work.

I have read this brochure and provided HWHW with accurate information and have signed the inside part of this application where a signature is requested.
